¹ General Taylor proceeded in 1811 to join the 22nd Dragoons in the East Indies, where he served until their return to Europe and disbandment, 25th Oct. 1820. He was in the field in 1815 and 16, and during the whole of the Marhatta war in 1817-19; the published official records show that his conduct was conspicuous in the Brigade Cavalry actions of Baektownie and of Nagore, and in that of Ashta (20th Feb. 1818), the enemy having charged, overthrew one Regiment and cut down the General commanding, he, as Brigade Major, incurred the responsibility of countermarching the retreat, of ordering measures which terminated in the entire defeat of the Poishwar, the death of his Commander in Chief (Gokla), and he rescued the Rajah of Satarrah, the influential events that terminated the war. At the siege of Capaul-droog, he commanded a Battery at the storm (13th May 1819), he blew open the first gate with a gallop gun of the 22nd Dragoons, and heading the Forlorn Hope, he stormed in succession the five distinct circles of fortifications, every man and officer of his party being either killed or wounded, he received at the summit of that strong hill fort at the moment of success in its capture, a shot through his lungs and body that killed the Grenadier behind him. The Governor General of India specially recommended him to favourable consideration for his services in India. In 1823-24 he was employed in the Cape Cavalry against the Caffres, and was recommended for promotion by the Governor and Commander in Chief. In Jan. 1821 he was relieved from a bullet which had been in his body since 1819. In Aug. 1826 his life was imperilled from a surgical operation consequent upon the passage of some cloth driven into him by a shot. In Nov. 1823 he was relieved from a piece of bone broken in his body by a shot. From April 1824 to Dec. 1827 he was a Colonel on the Staff at the Cape of Good Hope, where as a Brigadier at a "period of peculiar difficulty and imminently threatened war" he commanded a large force in Kaffraria with approbation and thanks publicly recorded. From April 1826 to April 1827 he was Commander of the Forces and Lieut. Governor of Jamaica and its Dependencies. In 1827 he was sent to England from Malta to establish discipline in a corps that had fired at and nearly killed their Adjutant, their insubordination sustained by a turbulent mob at a period of popular excitement. He took command and the Battalion shot him three times on the public parade, they fired into his windows and shot through the check a field aide who stood behind him. Without calling in other Troops he suppressed the mutiny, and alone he overawed the fury of the mob. The approbation of his Major General was submitted by his Lieut. General to the Horse Guards, and elicited through the Adjutant General the Sovereign's record that "the decided and necessary punishment to which he had resorted had effectually repressed the spirit that prevailed when he assumed the command."

² Colonel Ross commanded a detached force on the Nepaul frontier in 1839; drove the rebels from the plains of Tilawara where there was a large Bazar, and next day attacked them in the Jungle of Pipurea, the whole rebel army in consequence retired to Botoul, where they were cut up by Sir R. Kelly—for general services on the frontier was highly complimented by the Commander in Chief and Sir R. Kelly (Medal).

H. the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief in a letter dated Horse Guards 27th December 1868, addressed to Sir William Mansfield.

1. The daily rates of pay of the Officers of the Medical Branch of the Hospital Department of our Army shall be as follows:—

2. Every candidate to be admitted to the competitive examination for a commission as Assistant Surgeon to our Army shall be unmarried, and shall possess such a certificate or certificates as would qualify a civilian to practise medicine and surgery in Great Britain and Ireland; and before receiving a commission shall pass an examination in Military medicine, surgery, hygiene, and pathology, after attending the authorized course in a general Military hospital.

3. An Assistant Surgeon shall pass such examination as our Secretary of State for War may require, and shall have served on full pay with the commission of Assistant Surgeon for five years, of which two shall have been passed in or with a Regiment or Depot Battalion before he can be promoted to the rank of Surgeon.

4. Assistant Surgeons shall, as a general rule, be promoted to the rank of Surgeon in the order of their seniority in the service, unless unfit for the discharge of their duties from physical or professional incompetence or misconduct. In cases of distinguished service, however, an Assistant Surgeon may be promoted without reference to seniority; and in such cases the recommendation detailing the services for which the Officer is proposed for promotion shall be published in the General Orders of the Army and in the Gazette in which such promotion shall appear.

5. A Surgeon after 20 years' service in any rank shall be styled Surgeon Major, but a Surgeon of less than 20 years' full pay service may be promoted to the rank of Surgeon Major for distinguished service. The recommendation detailing the services for which the Officer is proposed for promotion for distinguished service shall be published in the General Orders of the Army, and in the Gazette in which such promotions shall appear.

6. A Surgeon must have served 10 years in our Army with a commission on full pay, of which period two years must have been passed with the rank of Surgeon in or with a Regiment or Depot Battalion, before he can be promoted to the rank of Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals.

7. All promotion from the rank of Surgeon or Surgeon Major to that of Deputy Inspector, and from the rank of Deputy Inspector to that of Inspector, shall be given by selection for ability and merit, the selection being made from the whole rank of Surgeons, whether styled Surgeons or Surgeons Major; and the grounds of such selection shall be stated to us in writing and recorded in the office of our Commander in Chief.

8. A Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals must have served five years at home, or three abroad, in that rank, before he can be promoted to the rank of Inspector General.

9. Our Secretary of State for War in cases of emergency may shorten the several periods of service above mentioned, as he shall deem expedient for the good of our service.

10. Good service pensions shall be awarded to the most meritorious Medical Officers of our Army, under such regulations as shall be from time to time determined by us, with the advice of our Secretary of State for War. Six of the most meritorious Medical Officers of our Army shall be named our Honorary Physicians, and six our Honorary Surgeons.

11. Medical Officers shall have the right to retire on half pay after 20 years' service; Medical Officers of the rank of Surgeon Major, Surgeon, or Assistant Surgeon, shall be placed on the retired list at the age of 55, and all Inspectors General and Deputy Inspectors General at the age of 65 years.

12. Our Secretary of State for War may, when he shall deem it fit, employ Officers of the Medical Branch of our Hospital Department in sundry situations at such daily rates of pay, in addition to half pay, as he shall from time to time determine.

13. A Medical Officer who having voluntarily resigned his commission has subsequently been permitted to re-enter the Army, shall not, except under very special circumstances, be to be approved by our Secretary of State for War, be allowed to reckon his former service.

14. An Apothecary shall have the right to retire on half pay after 30 years' good service.

Service on the West Coast of Africa.

15. A Medical Officer volunteering for service on the West Coast of Africa shall, in order to come under the provisions of the two following articles, serve on the coast for a period of at least twelve months, and shall be governed by the following regulations.

16. Each year of such service shall be allowed to reckon towards promotion and retirement as two years of ordinary service, but it shall not so reckon towards increased pay, or qualification for the rank of Surgeon Major. If an Officer shall be permitted, at his own wish, to prolong his stay on the coast, his further service shall be allowed to reckon in proportion.

17. For each year's service on the coast, a Medical Officer shall be entitled to a year's leave at home, and for every additional period beyond a year he shall have an equivalent extension of leave.

Non-Effective Pay.

18. A Medical Officer placed on half pay by reduction of establishment, or on the report of a medical board, in consequence of wounds or ill-health caused in and by the discharge of his duties, or on account of age (under Article 11), shall be entitled to half pay at the following daily rates:—

19. The rate of half pay awarded to Officers retiring for their own convenience, after 20 years' service on full pay, shall not exceed one-half of their full pay at the time of retirement.

20. Every Medical Officer who shall retire after a service upon full pay for 25 years, shall be granted a rate of half pay equal to seven-tenths of the daily pay he may have been in receipt of when thus retiring or proceeding on half pay, provided he shall have served three years in his rank or shall have served abroad for 10 years in all ranks, or for five years with an army in the field. An Officer of 25 years' full pay service, whose service falls within neither of these conditions, shall be entitled to only seven-tenths of the daily pay he was in receipt of prior to his last promotion.

21. A Medical Officer placed on half pay from any other cause shall be allowed only a temporary rate of half pay (not exceeding the rates specified in Article 18) for such period and at such rate as our Secretary of State for War shall decide with reference to the services rendered to the public by such Officer.

22. Medical Officers of 20 years' full pay service, placed temporarily on half pay under Article 21, on account of ill-health, may, however, be allowed to retire on permanent half pay at the rate fixed by Article 18, if after one year on half pay they shall be reported by a Medical Board to be permanently unfit for further service.

23. An Apothecary shall be granted pay at the following daily rate, if placed on half pay by reduction of establishment, or on account of age (under Article 14), or through ill-health, certified to the satisfaction of our Secretary of State for War to have been contracted in and by the service.
